Escusado es estenderse en demostrar la excelencia de estos carneros. Los Señores Estancieros los conocen ya su perfeccion, pero puede decirse que, si espleudidos han sido los ofrecidos en años anteriores, el presente lote los escede en magnificencia. Han sido criados con la especial mira de que se adaptan a todo lo que pida requerirse, y a la estension y calidad del terreno y pastos en los diferentes parajes del pais.

Por estas razones es que los sres estancieros encontrarán en este lote animales en tamaño y peso de su cuerpo, largura y naturaleza de lana, graduados con esmero para adaptarse a toda clase de campos, desde la mas rica tierra negra entre todos los grados de campos buenos y mediocres, como tambien para campos buenos pero menos engordadores que les de la Magdalena y otros mas o menos por estilo.

La calidad de la lana es maravillosamente perfecta y pronunciada, y ninguna cria de merinos de cuerpo pesado pueden compararse con estos en lo cortos de piernas y aun año de cuerpo.

SALE BY AUCTION

150 Rambouillet Rams.

The largest and most superb lot of Rambouillet Rams ever presented in this country, bred at the "Cabaña de los Alamos" by Mr. Wilfred Latham.

BY
BENJAMIN NAZAR & CO.
At their Office
CALLE VICTORIA NO. ..

On Wednesday 28th and Thursday 29th of August at 12 a.m. by order and for account of said Mr. Latham.

150 rams of 15 and 16 months old, with corresponding growth of wool, of the unequalled breed of acclimated Rambouillets of Mr. Wilfred Latham, modified by selection to harmonize with the natural pasture, soil and climate of these countries. It is unnecessary to dilate on the merits of these sheep. Sheepfarmers know their perfection, but it may be stated that splendid as in other years have been, the present lot exceeds all in magnificence.

They have been bred with special view to their adaption to all requirements, and the range of soil and herbage in the different parts of the country. Sheepfarmers, therefore, will find in this lot, animals of size, weight of carcase, length and substance of wool, nicely graduated to suit all camps from the richest deep black loam, through all the grades of good and medium camps, and also the fine but less fattening camps, such as the Magdalena and others more or less similar.

The character of the wool is marvellously perfect and permanent, and no breed of weighty carcased Merinos can compare with them in shortness of leg and depth of carcase.

There will also be on sale 2 or 3 animals two years old.

The whole will be on view at No. 154 Calle Victoria three days previous to the Auction.

Sheepfarmers must be on the alert, and not the miss sale this year.

REMATE

POR

BULLRICH y CIA.

Importantisimos Remates de Moruecos Negrettis y Rambouillets, y Cerdos Berkshire y Yorkshire provenientes de las famosas crias de los Srs. Olivera Hnos.

Los dias 27 de Agosto y 5 de Setiembre
A las Doce.
Calle San Martin No. 79.

NEGRETES.

La majada Negreta conservada, desde 1858 en que se fundo, bajo el sistema mas perfecto de aparejamiento, tiene su orijen en los rebaños de Hochtiltz (Austria), que como es sabe es la base de los verdaderos Negrettes.

En 1865 despues de largos viajes en Alemania introdujo el mismo Señor Olivera bellisimos animales Negrettes de la famosa Cabaña de Moidentin en Mecklenburgo Schwerin.

Todos los criadores de la Republica saben que Mr. Gilbert de Videville fue el primero y mas esperto entre los criadores Franceses; este viajando con el Sr. Olivera en Alemania declaro a la vista de la majada de Moidentin que era lo mas bello y practico que habia visto hasta entonces

Fue de alli que tomo el Sr. Olivera la nueva sangre que introdujo en 1865 y que tanta fuerza, belleza y rinde extraordinario en el vellon dio a la majada de Rambouillets.

Los carneros padres rinden de 26 hasta 28 libras de lana sin lavar, y tiene ovejas con vellones de 17 y hasta 22 libras; rinde extraordinario que solamente se consigue a fuerza de la escrupulosidad que el Sr. Olivera tiene en el aparejamiento de esta majada, y que han hecho la primera en el pais en su clase; como lo declaro el jurado de la Esposicion de Cordoba.

El 27 del corriente Agosto venderemos a la mas alta postura en la Calle San Martin No. 79 de treinta a treinta y cinco de estos bellisimos y utiles animales.

Recomendamos a los Estancieros el no desperdiciar esta oportunidad de tener tipos reproductores para sus majadas, aclimatados y criados especialmente para llenar las exijencias de nuestros ganaderos.

En oportunidad se repartiran a domicilio catalogos con el arbol geneologico de la majada y la numeracion y descendencia de cada uno de los carneros.

RAMBOUILLETS.

Los Rambouillets de los Sres Olivera podemos decir, sin jactancia alguna, son los mejores y mas bellos del pais.

Su majada proviene de los rebaños de Mr Gilbert de Videville, y como se sabe, los principales criadores Alemanes los han considerado superiores a los que tiene el Gobierno Frances

New Advertisements.

THEY NEVER REAPPEAR.—Rapid and deceptive maladies are banished for ever by Bristol's Sarsaparilla. They never reappear, either in their original shape or in a new form. This is not the case when mercury or any other mineral agent is employed. Suppressed at one point, the disease crops out at another. In many cases it is transferred from the surface to the bones, or from the external fleshy fibre to the vital organs. The secondary symptoms which so often follow mercurial suppression, are as dangerous and as obstinate as the original disease. This great vegetable depurative does not drive back the disorder, or scatter its seeds through the system. It is an extirpator. When its work is done it is done thoroughly. cj—ag24

BEST FOOD FOR INFANTS.

"H.R.H. Prince Albert Victor thrives so well upon it that it must be very good."—T. M. Kendall, Medical Attendant to H.R.H. the Prince of Wales.

"This food resembles Mother's Milk as closely as possible."—Dr. H. Barker on Right Food for Infants.

"Highly nourishing and easily digested."—Dr. Hassall.

It combines the most valuable Flesh and Bone-forming substances, and differs materially from other farinaceous foods, which being quite unable to afford proper nourishment to a growing infant, frequently lead to a rickety and idiotic condition. Savory and Moore's preparation has also the advantage of being freed from the ground husk of the corn, which produces irritation of the bowels and intractable diarrhœa. No boiling or straining required.

Sold in tins. Prepared by Savory and Moore, No. 143 New Bond-street, London. Procurable of all Chemists, Storekeepers, and Italian Warehousemen. cj—ag7

No better proof of the salubrity of the Lomas can be given than the fact that, even before the arrangement with the Boca Railway, and when it was comparatively an out-of-the-way place, it was nevertheless the most favored suburb.

It is as well that the victimised residents of this "city of smells" should know that Lomas boasts of no resident Doctor, but it has its own Church, Schools, and Cricket Club—institutions which mark its progress.

NATIONAL BANK PROJECT.

The River Plate General Trading Co., of London, through its managing-director, Mr. Julius Haase, submitted to Congress on the 20th inst, a project for the establishment of a National Bank with head-quarters in B. Ayres and branches throughout the Provinces.

The capital would be 4 millions sterling in twenty, fifty or hundred pound shares, to be taken up as follows—

| | |
|---|---|
| Argentine Government | £1,000,000 |
| River Plate Gen. Trading Co. | 1,000,000 |
| To be subscribed here or abroad | 2,000,000 |
| | £4,000,000 |

Of the two millions reserved for general subscription the Provincial Governments or Municipal Corporations may take shares. The calls to be payable as follows—£1 on subscription, £2 when the lists are closed, £2 sixty days later, and the remaining £15 at certain intervals.

The Bank will open a credit of one million sterling for the Nat. Government at 6 per cent., for payment of the calls, and the annual profits on the shares shall be set apart towards amortizing the said sum of one million sterling.

The Nat. Government and River Plate General Trading Co. will appoint a provisional Board of Directors for the first half-year, who will receive the calls and deposit the money in the Provincial Bank.

The business of the Bank will be of the usual description, including a right of emission, making loans to the National or Provincial Governments with legislative permission, opening credits for municipalities or private parties on security of National or Provincial Bonds, shares of joint-stock companies &c., making advances on gold or silver bullion or merchandise in deposit, discounting bills for not more than 90 days, opening accounts-current &c.

The notes of the Bank will be stamped by Government with the seal of the Republic, and be admissible in custom-houses and public offices. The emission will be up to double the paid-up capital, and may be further increased with Government sanction if the exigencies of the market and condition of the Bank advise. The notes will be subject to no duty or stamp-tax.

The Bank may commence operations as soon as 15 per cent. is paid up on all the shares. It may establish branches not only through the Provinces but in foreign parts, but the legal domicile is to be in Buenos Ayres. Savings banks will be attached to each branch in the Provinces. At the branches in foreign parts the share-holders may have their meetings and transfer shares.

Treasury or Custom-house balances will be deposited in the Bank or branches without interest, and there must always be a balance in favor of the National Government. Any other moneys deposited by Government shall enjoy the usual interest.

The Nat. Government cannot discount Custom-house bills for duties except through the Bank. Judicial deposits or guarantees ordered by Government must be lodged in the Nat. Bank, and without interest. The Bank will be the exclusive agent of the National Government, and open an account current at interest to be agreed on, besides a credit of £100,000 against Treasury Bills.

The Bank and its branches shall be exempt from National or Provincial taxes or municipal imposts, as well as the income from its shares.

The Provisional Board of Directors shall be composed of four members chosen by the Government and four by the General Trading Company, who will draw up the statutes and perform all preliminaries. After six months from the opening of the Bank a General Meeting of shareholders will be held to elect eight Directors, the Government naming other four. Every share shall cary a vote.

Shareholders abroad may hold a meeting whenever convenient, and their suggestions will be taken into consideration at the next General Meeting in B. Ayres.

The accounts will be made up yearly and the profits divided in this manner:

5 per cent. to the Nat. Government
5 per cent. to the R. P. Gen. Trading Co.
5 per cent. among the 12 directors
85 per cent. among the shareholders.

Whenever expedient the Directors may set apart a portion of the 85 per cent. towards a Reserve Fund. They may also pay interim dividends during the year. The Directors elect their own Chairman.

THE PANIC IN LONDON.

London, July 19th.

One of the largest holders of Argentine securities, a man of high standing and long connection with B. Ayres, was so alarmed that he invited other large bond-holders to accompany him as a deputation to Earl Granville to beg his intervention for peace in the River Plate. The others thought it premature and refused.

The day before the Neva reached Southampton Argentine stock fell 3 per cent. according to the Daily News, but the Times says the fall was only equal to 2 per cent., the latter paper being edited by the Argentine Consul-General.

It caused immense satisfaction when we learned that Brazil had maintained a calm attitude in reply to Tejedor's blustering note, and that the Imperial Cabinet would uphold the national dignity.

The Financier, on the day of the Neva's arrival, said—

"Latest intelligence shows how much "Argentines were in the dark as to the "feeling of Brazil, and it would seem "the issue of peace or war depends on "the Argentine Cabinet getting out of "the difficulty in which it has placed "itself".

The Times money-article is as follows:

"The news from B. Ayres by this packet to the 14th ult. shews that, in spite of the general uneasiness caused by the complication between the Arg. Republic and Brazil, the prevailing opinion was, that matters would not lead to a rupture and that the Mitre mission to Rio would restore friendly relations between the two countries.

"National Bonds at B. Ayres only fell from 75 to 73½, although the firmness of the market, be it noted, was due to the abundance of money, the Bank having lowered its rate to 6 per cent. In all other respects the progress of the country was unaltered, and the Trans-Andine telegraph had just been completed, uniting Chile with Buenos Ayres."

Brazilian stock also suffered: there was a fall of 1 per cent., leaving the 5 per cents at 97, which is, however, 2 per cent. higher than they were in May.

Then came a fall in all the stocks of South American Republics. Paraguayan fell 3 per cent. in one day, coming down to 72. The total fall in Argentines from the first bad news was 5 per cent., Brazilian 1 per cent. The Times was not correct in saying Brazilians had another fall of 1 per cent. because although there were buyers at 96 no one would sell under 97.

Speculators have made fortunes this week by running down all South American securities, and the expected rise in Bank rate also helped to depress the market.

The Financier comments on the crisis as follows—

"Although the Neva brings news of an excited feeling between Brazil and the Arg. Republic it would be premature to suppose war imminent. The Brazilian reply is dignified; do you want peace, or do you want war?

"The worst feature is, that the Arg. Congress seem to have unanimously adopted the intemperate language of Minister Tejedor, which is so entirely different from the amicable expressions of Pres. Sarmiento at the opening of Congress. The Emperor's address to his Chambers was also most friendly as regarded his Argentine neighbors.

"Unfortunately, while Argentine credit abroad is rising, and works of progress are going forward, with immigration on the increase and every sign of incipient prosperity, the statesmen and newspaper writers of Buenos Ayres have adopted a policy of rudeness and arrogance, and the Government assumes discourtesy. President Sarmiento is polite enough, but his Minister Tejedor has burst out impetuously.

"Add to this the old jealousy between Argentines and Brazilians that even an alliance of 7 years cannot extinguish. During the late war the Paraguayan fleet that was annihilated by Brazil at Riachuelo might have come down and shelled Buenos Ayres. Such services are forgotten.

"The fact, however, of sending General Mitre to Rio leads us to hope for a friendly arrangement."

I cannot find out anything about the Argentines getting ships or armaments in England, but I understand they have sent orders to the U. States, intending to pay for same out of the balance of two millions sterling lying here to their credit out of the Varela loan.

The above is from a correspondent of the Journal do Commercio and the Republica quotes the stocks before and after the panic as follows—

| | before. | after. |
|---|---|---|
| Riestra loan | 94 to 96 | 89 to 91 |
| Varela " | 93 to 95 | 89 to 91 |
| B. Ayres | 95 to 97 | 93 to 95 |

This shews a fall of 4 to 5 per cent. in National and 2 per cent. in Provincial stock. This is equivalent to a loss of £390,000, or nearly two million hard dollars.

MAILS FROM ST. HELENA.

LATEST FROM CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

LIFE AT THE DIAMOND FIELDS.

The first mails from St. Helena that have, to our knowledge, ever reached the River Plate were brought yesterday by Mr. Grady who left this country four months ago on a trip to the Diamond Fields of South Africa. He brings files of the St. Helena Guardian to July 11th, the Cape Argus to July 6th, and other South African papers, such as the Standard and Mail, and Port Elizabeth Herald.

The St. Helena Guardian is a well-printed weekly sheet, foolscap size, price 4 pence, containing 18 advertisements, market-prices, shipping news, correspondence, extract from London, New York and Cape journals, and a short leader, compiled and edited by Mr. Beniamin Grant, and published at Mr. M. George's dispensary, Main St. Jamestown, St. Helena. The French training-ship Jean Bart called for fresh provisions en route to France. The Coolie trade is so brisk, that in two days there were two vessels touched with large cargoes, for water and provisions, the China for Havannah with 756 coolies from Macao, the Indus from Calcutta for Trinidad with 413, the deaths having been 6 and 5 respectively on board. The mail-steamer Saxon arrived from Southampton in 27 days with 90 passengers, mostly diamond-seekers bound for Natal. The Australian steamer Somersetshire touched with 300 passengers, most of whom went to visit Napoleon's Grave. Rear-Admiral F. Campbell arrived to take command of the squadron, in lieu of Ad. B. Seymour. Beef and mutton 10 pence per lb., cabbages 5s. per dozen, hens 3s. each, geese 10s., sheep 10s., and turkeys 15 shillings. Sealed tenders for bills on the British Treasury at 30 day's sight called for.

Mr. Moss is the auctioneer at St. Helena and offers to sell the Brias farm on the road to Longwood, both of which names recal the memory of Napoleon. Mr. Hayward, photographer, offers at his studio in Napoleon St. views of Longwood and the tomb of the illustrious captive. Mr. Young conducts funerals on the most reasonable terms at Upper Brewery Yard. Mr. Woodman calls a meeting of the Mechanics Friendly Society; Mr. Carroll of the St. Helena Poor Society. Messrs. Baker and Co. sell jams and marmalade "under the trees." Mr. Jackson draws teeth without pain, and the creditors of James Buchanan, insolvent, are notified by the assignee. Mr. James Metcalfe; Mr. R. W. Homes &c sell toilet-covers, girls hats, Hennessy's best brandy at 5s. 6d., and Bass's Ale on draught.

The editor complains that the Governor of St Helena pays little heed to his remarks, but the Guardian very properly holds up to public censure the fact that the sailors, William Thresher, Charles Mabb, Edmund Palmen, Edward Randall, William Scott, John M. Gallagher, Thomas Pitman, William Brooker, and Louis Sequilan are left to wander about St. Helena as mendicants, their ship the Corinza, having gone down at sea, just at the moment that they were rescued by the American ship Agra. The Governor said he considered them as German sailors, not Britishers, because they helped to discharge a German vessel that had put in leaky, and refused them a passage home.

The Diamond Fields still yield largely. The last mail-steamer took home 312 diamonds valued at £2,530. Mr. Giddy is appointed Magistrate at the Fields with a salary of £1,000, and the Governor is going to make an official visit there. The House of Assembly has ordered telegraph wires to be established to the New Rush, and the two new railways of the East and West Coasts are in hands. The Assembly offers £1,000 for discovery of gold.

A considerable number of diamonds have been sold since our last fortnightly report for the English mail. Competition is well-sustained, and fair prices are realised. It is said that some of the account sales lately received do not show so heavy a loss as previous advices had led shippers to anticipate. The following is a statement of transactions in diamonds at public auction since the publication of our last Summary for England:—

| | No. of diamonds. | Carats. |
|---|---|---|
| Sold | 4,622 | 10,829 |
| Withdrawn | 1,852 | 4,714 |
| Total offered | 6,474 | 15,543 |

Much excitement has taken place in monetary circles owing to the report of a run on the Agricultural Bank of Queen's Town, which, it was rumoured, had made injudicious advances on diamonds; but the Bank having promptly met every claim made upon it, a reaction has set in, and it is now believed the worst is over. A run upon a bank is such an unprecedented event in this colony that it deserves more than a passing notice.

PARIS LETTER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Paris, July 23rd.

Having had a surfeit of financial debates, and more than enough of explanations about raw materials, the nation has turned to the genial subject of revolutions, the present being the anniversary of the first, and a few days more will bring us to that of a second. The people seem to think that Thiers will compel the adoption of his protective ideas; and as there is no means now of resisting him, the prohibitive tariff having become mixed up with the existence or defeat of the Republic, it is not unlikely the President's obstinacy and economic errors will be crowned with success. Everything is in contradiction in the debates; the only satisfactory feature about the budget discussions being that the people will pay what they may be called upon for; later it will be seen how they will bear the 'painless extraction' of cash from the pocket. The studied leniency displayed for house-owners and annuitants is already becoming a theme of general disapproval. We are in the 'honeymoon' of paying the Germans.

The Radicals and the Conservatives are hotly debating the outbreak of the Revolution of 1789. The former assert nothing, but the force then adopted would have produced that equality of man before the law which has now become one of the few clauses in that magna charta; as for liberty and fraternity, all governments put their own construction on these virtues; and the more the powers that be differ, the more they agree in the interpretation of liberty, which consists in curtailing or suppressing it according as it becomes unpalatable. If moderate and liberal minds had taken the lead in the mighty movement of '89, history might have been spared the Reign of Terror and the First Empire; the 'ancien' regime might have also been reformed. It is said force founds nothing, but states do place great faith in the intelligence of bayonets. The Gambetta banquet of the 14th July represented the force, savage and wild, of a peculiar people, as well as all that has been fruitful and glorious in the better features of the grand insurrection. We have now what our ancestors then had not—manhood suffrage, and the voting urns; but these did not prevent the Commune of 1871.

Gambetta did not make a good speech lately to the rurals; the rattling of the rain in the tents was enough to disturb his eloquence; but it is no secret now he received several threatening letters to prepare his coffin, if he dare set up his dictatorship again. The bravest of men dislike such notices to quit. It was better to hear words of concord from him than those of defiance. The future must decide as to his sincerity. The Radical journals laud him to the skies, which represents the measure of monarchal hatred.

The Cremer Court Marshal at Lyons reveals one of the most extraordinary episodes in the history of the Gambetta Government. The "ex-general" Cremer, was promoted from a Captaincy by Gambetta, to be general of division, and when Bourbaki attempted to blow out his brains, he became Commander-in-Chief of the army of the East, consisting of 80,000 men, who had to fly over the Swiss frontier, owing to an omission of Jules Favre to telegraph fully the armistice of Versailles. The indictment accuses Cremer—a rather young man with full beard given to smiling, and believing himself to be a heaven born general—of shooting a poor grocer, named Arbinet, an inhabitant of Dijon, without judging him, or hearing his defence, and against all the legal safeguards even in the case of summary executions. Arbinet was believed on hearsay and imagination to be a spy, and a M. Serres concluded he ought to be shot; telegraphed to General Cremer to see such was done; and the order was immediately executed, despite the protest of several. Consider the men that the chaos of 1870—71 threw up and into power. Serres was a Pole, not even a naturalised Frenchman, and he was the civil commissioner who represented Gambetta. Cremer asserted he never saw any documents nominating Serres, but believed he was omnipotent from general rumor, and it is on the strength of a telegram from such a man in the moon, that the poor grocer was shot for a crime of which he does not appear to have been guilty. Serres it appears is a disguised Polish nobleman; all the exiles of Poland are either nobles or violinists, but ever turn up under awkward circumstances. Cremer and de Serres, are mutually objectionable, and to think what lives they held in the hollow of their hands. Fsance must be the better from the Prussian purge.

Paul de Cassagnac, the noted Bonapartist editor of the 'Pays', is as often in prison as out of it, on account of his duels; he never refuses a challenge, and prides himself upon never having sent one, no matter how severely—that is scurrilously—a 'confrère' may have attacked him. Before entering the Pelagie prison to purge his contempt, he suggested to the government the propriety of not confining conservative editors in a Paris prison; because if an 'émeute' arises, such prisons will but prove as they have done hitherto, but "safes" for the 'sans culotte' to empty at will. There is not a little truth in his sarcasm.

Perhaps it is in view of the forth coming loan, but never did the oldest inhabitant see so many money changer's shops as now are to be met with in every part of the city; they are as plentiful as the tobacconists', and wine shops, and these are as numerous as the seed of Abraham. German Jews had formerly a monopoly of these money 'comptoirs'; a great many 'Ebrew Jews' still direct them, and to their credit it must be said, they are the most honest. When a "burst" takes place, it is ever the Gentile jew who has decamped. These numerous 'bureaux' are generally believed to be branches of the stock-brokers offices; they spring up and disappear like mushrooms.

Raphael the theatrical director who died in London, was brought over for burial in Père La Chaise, in his sister's vault—the celebrated Rachel; when the coffin was being carried in, it was found to be too large, and had to be covered with sheeting, till the wall was cut away.

Marriage has been defined here as the tomb of love, only the epitaph never sets, forth, "Here reposes in peace &c."

Were society, as Dumas 'fils' depicts in his latest production—'l'Homme-femme'—it would be best to set fire at once to the four corners of the world. The Dubourg drama has furnished the peg on which we have an esthetical lecture on adultery, full of raw and naked details, where nothing is cleared up, and nothing remains but a bulky pamphlet more. Adultery, the 'odium' of marriage, is therein endeavoured to be solved by mathematics applied to morality. It is a simple treatise on pornography, full of unhealthy and indecent images, with attempts towards the ideal and the sacred. The author's pen has ever, as he writes, a thread in it that unites him with the 'demi-monde'; he sees only vices and ulcers in society, as the alienist doctor inclines to find madmen everywhere—the occulist doctor, disordered eyes; or the dentist, teeth to be stuffed. It is a book too moral for Materialists—too scandalous for Christians. He is eloquent over the divinity of our Saviour, and becomes seraphic on Paganism; and an exordium on the Immaculate Conception is on a par with his Chesterfield letter to an imaginary son. He divides women into three classes, forgetting that every woman is in herself a category. Men he places in two divisions. As in the arithmetic of love, one and one makes one, hence, perhaps, the odd name of the work. 'l'Homme-femme,' the union of the two halves of the cherub, under which the ancients represented man and woman flying about the world and never encountering. Should these ideal moieties meet, we have the ideal couple, the 'man-woman of Dumas, who

Heart to heart,
United live and die—
Like those sweet birds, that fly together,
With feather always touching fea her,
Link'd by a hook and eye,

The work of Dumas is a conclusion where nothing is concluded; he advocates divorce for an ill-assorted pair; suggests to the man of the world to pardon his wife if he detects her in adultery; and to the immaculate benedict, to kill her under such circumstances. The finishing lines of the author will meet with general approval wherein he states, that his counsels may be considered as foolish.

At Autenil a retired hotel-keeper, aged 60, lived to all appearances happy with his wife, aged 20. What can a young lassie do wi' an auld man? Their only visitor was a young man of 25, who had been reared by the husband. It was the case of the serpent biting the breast that warmed it into life. The wife was accidentally drowned in a pond a few days ago; in her pocket her husband found a package of letters, proving her adultery since her marriage, with the family visitor; the husband, armed with a revolver, sought the paramour, but on arriving at his residence experienced an attack of apoplexy, and is since dead; the young man shocked at the events, is down under a brain fever, and with no chance of recovery.

THEY NEVER REAPPEAR.—Eruptive and decretive maladies are banished for ever by Bristol's Sarsaparilla. They never reappear, either in their original shape or in a new form. This is not the case when mercury or any other mineral agent is employed. Suppressed at one point, the disease crops out at another. In many cases it is transferred from the surface to the bones, or from the external fleshy fibre to the vital organs. The secondary symptoms which so often follow mercurial suppression, are as dangerous and as obstinate as the original disease. This great vegetable depurative does not drive back the disorder, or scatter its seeds through the system. It is an extirpator. When its work is done it is done thoroughly. cj—ag24

NATIONAL BANK PROJECT.

The River Plate General Trading Co., of London, through its managing-director, Mr. Julius Haase, submitted to Congress on the 20th inst, a project for the establishment of a National Bank with head-quarters in B. Ayres and branches throughout the Provinces.

The capital would be 4 millions sterling in twenty, fifty or hundred pound shares, to be taken up as follows—

| | |
|---|---|
| Argentine Government | £1,000,000 |
| River Plate Gen. Trading Co. | 1,000,000 |
| To be subscribed here or abroad | 2,000,000 |
| | £4,000,000 |

Of the two millions reserved for general subscription the Provincial Governments or Municipal Corporations may take shares. The calls to be payable as follows—£1 on subscription, £2 when the lists are closed, £2 sixty days later, and the remaining £15 at certain intervals.

The Bank will open a credit of one million sterling for the Nat. Government at 6 per cent., for payment of the calls, and the annual profits on the shares shall be set apart towards amortizing the said sum of one million sterling.

The Nat. Government and River Plate General Trading Co. will appoint a provisional Board of Directors for the first half-year, who will receive the calls and deposit the money in the Provincial Bank.

The business of the Bank will be of the usual description, including a right of emission, making loans to the National or Provincial Governments with legislative permission, opening credits for municipalities or private parties on security of National or Provincial Bonds, shares of joint-stock companies &c., making advances on gold or silver bullion or merchandise in deposit, discounting bills for not more than 90 days, opening accounts-current &c.

The notes of the Bank will be stamped by Government with the seal of the Republic, and be admissible in custom-houses and public offices. The emission will be up to double the paid-up capital, and may be further increased with Government sanction if the exigencies of the market and condition of the Bank advise. The notes will be subject to no duty or stamp-tax.

The Bank may commence operations as soon as 15 per cent. is paid up on all the shares. It may establish branches not only through the Provinces but in foreign parts, but the legal domicile is to be in Buenos Ayres. Savings banks will be attached to each branch in the Provinces. At the branches in foreign parts the share-holders may have their meetings and transfer shares.

Treasury or Custom-house balances will be deposited in the Bank or branches without interest, and there must always be a balance in favor of the National Government. Any other moneys deposited by Government shall enjoy the usual interest.

The Nat. Government cannot discount Custom-house bills for duties except through the Bank. Judicial deposits or guarantees ordered by Government must be lodged in the Nat. Bank, and without interest. The Bank will be the exclusive agent of the National Government, and open an account current at interest to be agreed on, besides a credit of £400,000 against Treasury Bills.

The Bank and its branches shall be exempt from National or Provincial taxes or municipal imposts, as well as the income from its shares.

The Provisional Board of Directors shall be composed of four members chosen by the Government and four by the General Trading Company, who will draw up the statutes and perform all preliminaries. After six months from the opening of the Bank a General Meeting of shareholders will be held to elect eight Directors, the Government naming other four. Every share shall cary a vote.

Shareholders abroad may hold a meeting whenever convenient, and their suggestions will be taken into consideration at the next General Meeting in B. Ayres.

The accounts will be made up yearly and the profits divided in this manner:

5 per cent. to the Nat. Government
5 per cent. to the R. P. Gen. Trading Co.
5 per cent. among the 12 directors
85 per cent. among the shareholders.

Whenever expedient the Directors may set apart a portion of the 85 per cent. towards a Reserve Fund. They may also pay interim dividends during the year. The Directors elect their own Chairman.

When all the capital is subscribed the R. Plate General Trading Company may add more on their own part if they wish. Meantime they will deposit as guarantee a sum of £10,000 in one of the city Banks, for fulfilment of the obligations above recited.

All expenses in launching the Bank, such as commission to Bankers, printing, advertisements, travelling-expenses &c. to be borne by the General Trading Company shall be deducted from the first year's profits, provided they do not exceed 2 per cent. of the capital.

This charter of the National Bank of the Argentine Republic shall be for 20 years.

THE PANIC IN LONDON.

London, July 19th.

One of the largest holders of Argentine securities, a man of high standing and long connection with B. Ayres, was so alarmed that he invited other large bond-holders to accompany him as a deputation to Earl Granville to beg his intervention for peace in the River Plate. The others thought it premature and refused.

The day before the Neva reached Southampton Argentine stock fell 3 per cent. according to the Daily News, but the Times says the fall was only equal to 2 per cent., the latter paper being edited by the Argentine Consul-General.

It caused immense satisfaction when we learned that Brazil had maintained a calm attitude in reply to Tejedor's blustering note, and that the Imperial Cabinet would uphold the national dignity.

The Financier, on the day of the Neva's arrival, said—

"Latest intelligence shews how much "Argentines were in the dark as to the "feeling of Brazil, and it would seem "the issue of peace or war depends on "the Argentine Cabinet getting out of "the difficulty in which it has placed "itself".

The Times money-article is as follows:

"The news from B. Ayres by this packet to the 14th ult. shews that, in spite of the general uneasiness caused by the complication between the Arg. Republic and Brazil, the prevailing opinion was, that matters would not lead to a rupture and that the Mitre mission to Rio would restore friendly relations between the two countries.

"National Bonds at B. Ayres only fell from 75 to 73½, although the firmness of the market, be it noted, was due to the abundance of money, the Bank having lowered its rate to 6 per cent. In all other respects the progress of the country was unaltered, and the Trans-Andine telegraph had just been completed, uniting Chile with Buenos Ayres."

Brazilian stock also suffered: there was a fall of 1 per cent., leaving the 5 per cents at 97, which is, however, 2 per cent. higher than they were in May.

Then came a fall in all the stocks of South American Republics. Para guayan fell 3 per cent. in one day, coming down to 72. The total fall in Argentines from the first bad news was 5 per cent., Brazilian 1 per cent. The Times was not correct in saying Brazilians had another fall of 1 per cent. because although there were buyers at 96 no one would sell under 97.

Speculators have made fortunes this week by running down all South American securities, and the expected rise in Bank rate also helped to depress the market.

The Financier comments on the crisis as follows—

"Although the Neva brings news of an excited feeling between Brazil and the Arg. Republic it would be premature to suppose war imminent. The Brazilian reply is dignified; do you want peace, or do you want war?

"The worst feature is, that the Arg. Congress seem to have unanimously adopted the intemperate language of Minister Tejedor, which is so entirely different from the amicable expressions of Pres. Sarmiento at the opening of Congress. The Emperor's address to his Chambers was also most friendly as regarded his Argentine neighbors.

"Unfortunately, while Argentine credit abroad is rising, and works of progress are going forward, with immigration on the increase and every sign of incipient prosperity, the statesmen and newspaper writers of Buenos Ayres have adopted a policy of rudeness and arrogance, and the Government assumes discourtesy. President Sarmiento is polite enough, but his Minister Tejedor has burst out impetuously.

"Add to this the old jealousy between Argentines and Brazilians that even an alliance of 7 years cannot extinguish. During the late war the Paraguayan fleet that was annihilated by Brazil at Riachuelo might have come down and shelled Buenos Ayres. Such services are forgotten.

"The fact, however, of sending General Mitre to Rio leads us to hope for a friendly arrangement."

I cannot find out anything about the Argentines getting ships or armaments in England, but I understand they have sent orders to the U. States, intending to pay for same out of the balance of two millions sterling lying here to their credit out of the Varela loan.

The above is from a correspondent of the Journal do Commercio and the Republica quotes the stocks before and after the panic as follows—

| | before. | after. |
|---|---|---|
| Riestra loan | 94 to 96 | 89 to 91 |
| Varela " | 93 to 95 | 89 to 91 |
| B. Ayres | 95 to 97 | 93 to 95 |

This shews a fall of 4 to 5 per cent. in National and 2 per cent. in Provincial stock. This is equivalent to a loss of £390,000, or nearly two million hard dollars.

MAILS FROM ST. HELENA.

LATEST FROM CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

LIFE AT THE DIAMOND FIELDS.

The first mails from St. Helena that have, to our knowledge, ever reached the River Plate were brought yesterday by Mr. Grady who left this country four months ago on a trip to the Diamond Fields of South Africa. He brings files of the St. Helena Guardian to July 11th, the Cape Argus to July 6th, and other South African papers, such as the Standard and Mail, and Port Elizabeth Herald.

The St. Helena Guardian is a well-printed weekly sheet, foolscap size, price 4 pence, containing 18 advertisements, market-prices, shipping news, correspondence, extract from London, New York and Cape journals, and a short leader, compiled and edited by Mr. Benjamin Grant, and published at Mr. M. George's dispensary, Main St. Jamestown, St. Helena. The French training-ship Jean Bart called for fresh provisions en route to France. The Coolie trade is so brisk, that in two days there were two vessels touched with large cargoes, for water and provisions, the China for Havannah with 756 coolies from Macao, the Indus from Calcutta for Trinidad with 413, the deaths having been 6 and 5 respectively on board. The mail-steamer Saxon arrived from Southampton in 27 days with 90 passengers, mostly diamond-seekers bound for Natal. The Australian steamer Somersetshire touched with 300 passengers, most of whom went to visit Napoleon's Grave. Rear-Admiral F. Campbell arrived to take command of the squadron, in lieu of Ad. B. Seymour. Beef and mutton 10 pence per lb., cabbages 5s. per dozen, hens 3s. each, geese 10s., sheep 10s., and turkeys 15 shillings. Sealed tenders for bills on the British Treasury at 30 day's sight called for.

Mr. Moss is the auctioneer at St. Helena and offers to sell the Brias farm on the road to Longwood, both of which names recal the memory of Napoleon. Mr. Hayward, photographer, offers at his studio in Napoleon St. views of Longwood and the tomb of the illustrious captive. Mr. Young conducts funerals on the most reasonable terms at Upper Brewery Yard. Mr. Woodman calls a meeting of the Mechanics Friendly Society; Mr. Carroll of the St. Helena Poor Society. Messrs. Baker and Co. sell jams and marmalade "under the trees." Mr. Jackson draws teeth without pain, and the creditors of James Buchanan, insolvent, are notified by the assignee. Mr. James Metcalfe; Mr. R. W. Homes &c sell toilet-covers, girls hats, Hennessy's best brandy at 5s. 6d., and Bass's Ale on draught.

The editor complains that the Governor of St Helena pays little heed to his remarks, but the Guardian very properly holds up to public censure the fact that the sailors, William Thresher, Charles Mabb, Edmund Palmen, Edward Randall, William Scott, John M. Gallagher, Thomas Pitman, William Brooker, and Louis Sequilan are left to wander about St. Helena as mendicants, their ship the Corinza, having gone down at sea, just at the moment that they were rescued by the American ship Agra. The Governor said he considered them as German sailors, not Britishers, because they helped to discharge a German vessel that had put in leaky, and refused them a passage home.

The Diamond Fields still yield largely. The last mail-steamer took home 312 diamonds valued at £2,580. Mr. Giddy is appointed Magistrate at the Fields with a salary of £1,000, and the Governor is going to make an official visit there. The House of Assembly has ordered telegraph wires to be established to the New Rush, and the two new railways of the East and West Coasts are in hands. The Assembly offers £1,000 for discovery of gold.

A considerable number of diamonds have been sold since our last fortnightly report for the English mail. Competition is well-sustained, and fair prices are realised. It is said that some of the account sales lately received do not show so heavy a loss as previous advices had led shippers to anticipate. The following is a statement of transactions in diamonds at public auction since the publication of our last Summary for England:—

| | No. of diamonds. | Carats. |
|---|---|---|
| Sold | 4,622 | 10,829 |
| Withdrawn | 1,852 | 4,714 |
| Total offered | 6,474 | 15,543 |

Much excitement has taken place in monetary circles owing to the report of a run on the Agricultural Bank of Queen's Town, which, it was rumoured, had made injudicious advances on diamonds; but the Bank having promptly met every claim made upon it, a reaction has set in, and it is now believed the worst is over. A run upon a bank is such an unprecedented event in this colony that it deserves more than a passing notice.

PARIS LETTER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Paris, July 23rd.

Having had a surfeit of financial debates, and more than enough of explanations about raw materials, the nation has turned to the genial subject of revolutions, the present being the anniversary of the first, and a few days more will bring us to that of a second. The people seem to think that Thiers will compel the adoption of his protective ideas; and as there is no means now of resisting him, the prohibitive tariff having become mixed up with the existence or defeat of the Republic, it is not unlikely the President's obstinacy and economic errors will be crowned with success. Everything is in contradiction in the debates; the only satisfactory feature about the budget discussions being that the people will pay what they may be called upon for; later it will be seen how they will bear the 'painless extraction' of cash from the pocket. The studied leniency displayed for house-owners and annuitants is already becoming a theme of general disapproval. We are in the 'honeymoon' of paying the Germans.

The Radicals and the Conservatives are hotly debating the outbreak of the Revolution of 1789. The former assert nothing, but the force then adopted would have produced that equality of man before the law which has now become one of the few clauses in that magna charta; as for liberty and fraternity, all governments put their own construction on these virtues; and the more the powers that be differ, the more they agree in the interpretation of liberty, which consists in curtailing or suppressing it according as it becomes unpalatable. If moderate and liberal minds had taken the lead in the mighty movement of '89, history might have been spared the Reign of Terror and the First Empire; the 'ancien' regime might have also been reformed. It is said force founds nothing, but states do place great faith in the intelligence of bayonets. The Gambetta banquet of the 14th July represented the force, savage and wild, of a peculiar people, as well as all that has been fruitful and glorious in the better features of the grand insurrection. We have now what our ancestors then had not—manhood suffrage, and the voting urns; but these did not prevent the Commune of 1871.

Gambetta did not make a good speech lately to the rurals; the rattling of the rain in the tents was enough to disturb his eloquence; but it is no secret now he received several threatening letters to prepare his coffin, if he dare set up his dictatorship again. The bravest of men dislike such notices to quit. It was better to hear words of concord from him than those of defiance. The future must decide as to his sincerity. The Radical journals laud him to the skies, which represents the measure of monarchal hatred.

The Cremer Court Marshal at Lyons reveals one of the most extraordinary episodes in the history of the Gambetta Government. The "ex-general" Cremer, was promoted from a Captaincy by Gambetta, to be general of division, and when Bourbaki attempted to blow out his brains, he became Commander-in-Chief of the army of the East, consisting of 80,000 men, who had to fly over the Swiss frontier, owing to an omission of Jules Favre to telegraph fully the armistice of Versailles. The indictment accuses Cremer—a rather young man with full beard given to smiling, and believing himself to be a heaven born general—of shooting a poor grocer, named Arbinet, an inhabitant of Dijon, without judging him, or hearing his defence, and against all the legal safeguards even in the case of summary executions. Arbinet was believed on hearsay and imagination to be a spy, and a M. Serres concluded he ought to be shot; telegraphed to General Cremer to see such was done; and the order was immediately executed, despite the protest of several. Consider the men that the chaos of 1870—71 threw up and into power. Serres was a Pole, not even a naturalised Frenchman, and he was the civil commissioner who represented Gambetta. Cremer asserted he never saw any documents nominating Serres, but believed he was omnipotent from general rumor, and it is on the strength of a telegram from such a man in the moon, that the poor grocer was shot for a crime of which he does not appear to have been guilty. Serres it appears is a disguised Polish nobleman; all the exiles of Poland are either nobles or violinists, but ever turn up under awkward circumstances. Cremer and de Serres, are mutually objectionable, and to think what lives they held in the hollow of their hands. France must be the better from the Prussian purge.

Paul de Cassagnac, the noted Bonapartist editor of the 'Pays', is as often in prison as out of it, on account of his duels; he never refuses a challenge, and prides himself upon never having sent one, no matter how severely—that is scurrilously—a 'confrère' may have attacked him. Before entering the Pelagie prison to purge his contempt, he suggested to the government the propriety of not confining conservative editors in a Paris prison; because if an 'émeute' arises, such prisons will but prove as they have done hitherto, but "safes" for the 'sans culotte' to empty at will. There is not a little truth in his sarcasm.

Perhaps it is in view of the forth coming loan, but never did the oldest inhabitant see so many money changer's shops as now are to be met with in every part of the city; they are as plentiful as the tobacconists', and wine shops, and these are as numerous as the seed of Abraham. German Jews had formerly a monopoly of these money 'comptoirs'; a great many 'Ebrew Jews" still direct them, and to their credit it must be said, they are the most honest. When a "burst" takes place, it is over the Gentile jew who has decamped. These numerous 'bureaux' are generally believed to be branches of the stock-brokers offices; they spring up and disappear like mushrooms.

Raphael the theatrical director who died in London, was brought over for burial in Père La Chaise, in his sister's vault—the celebrated Rachel; when the coffin was being carried in, it was found to be too large, and had to be covered with sheeting, till the wall was cut away.

Marriage has been defined here as the tomb of love, only the epitaph never sets, forth, "Here reposes in peace &c."

Were society, as Dumas 'fils' depicts in his latest production—'l'Homme-femme'—it would be best to set fire at once to the four corners of the world. The Dubourg drama has furnished the peg on which we have an esthetical lecture on adultery, full of raw and naked details, where nothing is cleared up, and nothing remains but a bulky pamphlet more. Adultery, the 'oïdium' of marriage, is therein endeavoured to be solved by mathematics applied to morality. It is a simple treatise on pornography, full of unhealthy and indecent images, with attempts towards the ideal and the sacred. The author's pen has ever, as he writes, a thread in it that unites him with the 'demi-monde'; he sees only vices and ulcers in society, as the alienist doctor inclines to find madmen everywhere—the occulist doctor, disordered eyes; or the dentist, teeth to be stuffed. It is a book too moral for Materialists—too scandalous for Christians. He is eloquent over the divinity of our Saviour, and becomes seraphic on Paganism; and an exordium on the Immaculate Conception is on a par with his Chesterfield letter to an imaginary son. He divides women into three classes, forgetting that every woman is in herself a category. Men he places in two divisions. As in the arithmetic of love, one and one makes one, hence, perhaps, the odd name of the work. 'l'Homme-femme,' the union of the two halves of the cherub, under which the ancients represented man and woman flying about the world and never encountering. Should these ideal moieties meet, we have the ideal couple, the 'man-woman of Dumas, who

Heart to heart,
United live and die—
Like those sweet birds, that fly together,
With feather always touching fea her,
Link'd by a hook and eye,

The work of Dumas is a conclusion where nothing is concluded; he advocates divorce for an ill-assorted pair; suggests to the man of the world to pardon his wife if he detects her in adultery; and to the immaculate benedict, to kill her under such circumstances. The finishing lines of the author will meet with general approval wherein he states, that his counsels may be considered as foolish.

At Autenil a retired hotel-keeper, aged 60, lived to all appearances happy with his wife, aged 20. What can a young lassie do wi' an auld man? Their only visitor was a young man of 25, who had been reared by the husband. It was the case of the serpent biting the breast that warmed it into life. The wife was accidentally drowned in a pond a few days ago; in her pocket her husband found a package of letters, proving her adultery since her marriage, with the family visitor; the husband, armed with a revolver, sought the paramour, but on arriving at his residence experienced an attack of apoplexy, and is since dead; the young man shocked at the events, is down under a brain fever, and with no chance of recovery.

Tichborne has his journal, and so has Marshal Bazaine; but in the latter case it is a two sous serial, appearing weekly, collecting all the damning documents against him, from Mexico to Metz. It demands his head—a request difficult to refuse. The Marshal has been so plagued with distinguished visitors that he has requested to be left alone.

As for the Commune, we are reminded of it by an occasional execution at Satory, or the departure of a ship-load of its adherents to New Caledonia. M. Gambetta is agitating that the lambs be amnestied, the doves allowed to return to their cots.

Paris has got over her quarter-day well; rents here have been punctually paid, and removals were few; in fact, all that were forced to leave fashionable quarters have long since done so. There are streets of splendid mansions to be let, the only tenants being the landlords. Building speculation is all over; you can buy a house 50 per cen. cheaper than erect one. At all times, perhaps, it was true that fools build houses for wise men to live in.

Bread from this season's wheat has appeared. The tiny rolls are ornamented with a national-colored ribbon and a 'Vive la Republique!' In olden times the new loaves preferred 'Vive l'Empereur.'

The preserved meat from S. America, that is the extract, ought to have a good sale in Paris, and would were it cheaper and its taste varied. A journal sensibly suggests, could the meat not be prepared like the famous pea sausage that the German troops were fed upon during the late campaign.

Cabby, holding his fare melancholy in hand and addresses his hirer—"when you will drive me, I will pay you better."

Respectably dressed gentleman to a fire man directing hose against a house in flames—"there's a franc for you my brave, and save my wife."

"Natural beet," is advertised four sous per pound dearer than "ordinary" beef.

Judge to prisoner—"why have you killed the victim?" "Because he had a culpable soul; I judged him and condemned him; I have returned from America, and Je fais le Lynch."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

General clear up in the weather yesterday, but the mud and the streets wore their old familiar face. The report about the Municipal intention to sweep and clean the latter was a false alarm maliciously spread by parties anxious to poke fun at the respected Corporation of the city. We have reason to believe that the admirable system of house servants, "twigging" the dirt from one side of the street to the other and back again, which has been found to answer so admirably for the last two years, will be persevered in till the comet comes or the servants get up a broom strike.

We publish in another column the very latest intelligence from the Cape and St. Helena, extracted from newspapers and other sources kindly supplied to us by Mr. Joseph Grady, the well-known marine purveyor, who has returned from his trip to the Cape. Mr. Grady came thence in a brig to Rio, and to the Plate in the Biela. We feel much indebted to him for thinking of the STANDARD; news from St. Helena, where the giant of this century breathed his last, is not to be had every day in the River Plate.

The voting for the 'terna' of candidates for the Archbishopric of Buenos Ayres, on Thursday, in the National Senate, resulted as follows:—Father Esquiu, first: Dr. Aneiros, second; and Dr. Achaval, third. These nominations have to be sent to Rome. The Holy Father may appoint any of the three, but we believe it is customary with the Vatican to select the first name on the list. We may, therefore, very respectfully salute the Rev. Father Esquin as the future archbishop of Buenos Ayres.

No steamer from the Mount yesterday, 'a fortiori' no passengers or papers. The latter can be no great loss, and with an average amount of Christian patience we shall probably get on without either for even another day, should there be no steamer up this morning. Good people are so scarce now-a-days that the Montevideans, very properly, don't like travelling in wet weather by steamer, lest they should melt, like tissue paper, or some other irreparable calamity occur to them. We know a highly respectable gentleman who caught a dangerous cold in his head while coming up on Wednesday night.

D—d ham (d—d stands for devilled, not d—d) ham sandwiches caused a 'ruction' in Calle Reconquista yesterday. At an early hour it oozed out that a large consignment of this delicious edible had arrived by the Amazone to Messrs. Sassenberg & Co., sole agents for its sale in the Plate. All the friends and customers of that firm—and their name is half-a-dozen legions—at once forgot they had breakfasted, and felt hungry. A rush to the well known premises ensued, and 'tasting' commenced. The opinions and effects of the sandwiches were wonderful and various, some of them exactly similar to those chronicled when the 'shebang cocktail' was first introduced to the thirsty public by an Almagro 'pulpero.' All who tasted the d—d sandwiches admit, that for putting a man in 'spunk' to get through his afternoon's work, nothing like them has ever been introduced to the commercial public. For picnics and dejeuners a la fourchette' they are more than 'hors ligne,' fat being also artistically mixed with the bread and mustard.

The further news from Europe respecting the break up in the South American securities in London is calculated to give brokers and capitalists here 'fits.' The bottom is out of the Argentine monetary tub there. The Brazilian question and the 'exposé' about the Thirty Million Loan burst like bombshells amongst insiders and outsiders at Capel Court. The 'Bears' snuffied about, trampling the life out of Hard Dollar Bonds; the 'Bulls' bellowed with pure fright, and looked up their friends the 'stags' in case the latter's valuable services should be required. The largest holder of Argentine Bonds thought of asking Lord Granville to interfere, but he was outvoted. For a quarter of a century such a flutter has not been seen in the Foreign Bond market. We give full particulars in another column.

A New York paper says: "An illustration of the sharp Yankee's propensity for bargaining, and ever-ready inclination to settle a question by a 'swop,' is given by a Connecticut man's proposition for the settlement of the Alabama claims and the Cuban difficulty, as follows: That the British Government give to the United States in Satisfaction for the indirect damages the fortress of Gibraltar, and that the United States then offer it to Spain in exchange for the Island of Cuba."

Sr. Piccioli takes his benefit on Monday at the Colon. We alluded in our last issue to the merits of this artist who is as estimable in private life as he is popular in public. We feel certain he will have the 'bumper' he deserves. 'Roberto' tomorrow.

We received papers from the West Coast and Central America yesterday, but they are of old date, and we have already published most of their contents.

Dutchmen should be careful how they pronounce English. We hear of a worthy Hollander who consented to deliver a small parcel at Belgrano for a lady friend the other day. He rang the bell, and on the appearance of a pretty English servant said, 'I have got one small pox, and if you like I vill pring him in.' The door slammed.

A painful tramway accident occurred on the Recoleta line on Thursday during the deluge of rain that fell that morning. A car trammed with fair and ugly passengers ran off the rails, and stuck in the mud, in the 'tercero' at the corner of Calles Temple and Cerrito. The water rushed in incontinently, and petticoats and patent leathers were ruined by the dozen before additional horse power dragged the car on the rails again.

The military man who commands on the Chaco frontier considers that the true remedy for settling the savages about there is to establish a new town, and he has proposed to the National Government to start one near Fort Sarmiento.

Estancieros should not forget that another auction of thorough bred rams and mestiza sheep is announced by Mr. Diaz for the 1st September, at Chivilcoy. The animals were bred on the well known establishment "Medano Blanco," of Messrs. Rocha. This is a splendid oportunity for sheep breeders in the West.

Mr. Latham's Rambouillet rams will be on view on and after to-morrow until the day of sale, which will take place on Wednesday the 28th inst. and following days at Mr. Nazar's auction rooms.

Our latest advices from New York state that the State Shad Propagating Establishment on the Hudson has been broken up, on account of the intense heat. Seth Green sent westward 25,000 shad, to be put in the head waters of the Mississippi, as an experiment, at the request of Spencer G. Baird, United States Commissionar of Fisheries.

'Sic transit gloria mundi.' The lamentable news of a general 'burst up' on the famous river Vermejo was received in town yesterday, and cast a gloom over steamboat and general exploration and navigation circles No wonder nothing had been heard of the little steamer Leguizamon. The Indians have made ashes of her. The particulars of the catastrophe to hand are sad, but by no means ample. The Indians of the Chaco, it appears, tracked the vessel up the Vermejo, and suddenly fell on it one night, applying the torch so effectually, that the gallant little craft was burned to the water's edge in less than no time. The despatch does not say if any one on board was murdered, or, indeed, if there was anyone on board at the time: On hearing of the outrage Colonel Uriburu, of the Salta frontier force, turned out, overtook the savages, and slaughtered half of them. These are the only particulars to hand, and great anxiety naturally exists in town as to the fate of those on board.

We commend the following touching history from Boston to the attention and imitation of the brokers of Buenos Ayres. 'Sam Way' has gone the way of all flesh, but he has left a noble example to his 'gremio' here, which, as far as we know, has always been on excellent terms with needlewoman, indeed with the fair sex generally, and should like Sam Way, remember them when 'shuffling off.' In reference to this model broker, the New York Tribune says:—"Mr. Samuel A. Way died a few days since. He was a Boston broker, the proprietor of a private bank, and the owner of a great deal of real estate. He had the reputation of being an exceedingly sharp business man; he was not remarkable for the urbanity of his manners; and those who owed him money found it to their personal comfort to pay him as soon as possible. He was respected as rich men usually are, and he was called 'Sam Way' rather irreverently by the general public. All his life he meant money, as the phrase is, and all his life he made it. And yet, when it came to the disposition and distribution of his estate, this hard, and, as he was deemed by many, this uncharitable bill broker, made one of the kindest, most considerate, and most gentle of devises—the most touching which the world has heard of since Stephen Girard founded an education asylum for orphan boys. Mr. Way has constituted the needlewomen of Boston his residuary legatees. After liberal devises to his kin, with due remembrance of his servants, he gives the remainder of his estate to trustees to be used for the benefit of the aforesaid seamstresses.' He observes in his will that 'the chief embarrassments to which this class of persons are exposed result from a failure of employment at certain seasons, and a scarcity of suitable dwelling places.' He wishes, therefore, to secure to needlewomen, 1, a supply of work when ordinary resources fail; and 2, a provision of houses containing convenient, healthful apartments."

Charity for Chile is the order of the day, and a right good order too. The next public entertainment in aid of the small pox sufferers there will be given by that excellent society, the Young Men's Christian Association, on Thursday next. The programme will be found in another column. Admission is free, but a collection in aid of the charity will be made during the evening.

We regret exceedingly to learn that our able colleague Colonel Mansilla is very seriously indisposed. We trust that we may have better news of his condition to morrow.

An Italian wedding at the Socorro Church created a terrific hubbub in that neighbourhood some nights ago. The happy couple were escorted through the streets by troops of friends hammering "la retraite" and the "pas de charge" on old tin cans &c., and making night hideous with Bacchanalian staves. The police did not interfere.

A Cordova colleague, in an ecstacy caused by some recent talk about Loans, Banks, Railways, Mines &c. in the Chambers of the Province, ventures on the prediction that its lime quarries will yet rival in pecuniary returns the great guano deposits of Peru! Lime is evidently destined to play the 'deuce' with poor Cordova if she uses no other materials to build up her prosperity.

The papers from Asuncion contain not a word of news. There is a report current in the Paraguayan capital that General Vedia will shortly be recalled to Buenos Ayres to assume the National War Office portfolio. The rumour is, unfortunately, too good to be true.

We take the following from a Saint Helena paper; "Upon meeting a man whome he recognised in the uniform of the 42d regiment, an Irish colonel said: 'How's this; arn't you a countryman of mine?' 'Faith, I am, your honour.' 'And in the uniform of a Scotch regiment?' 'Yes, your honour; I am what they call a lamb in wolf's clothing.'

"Late Australian advices state that kangaroo leather is there thought particularly appropriate for leap-year wear."

The marriage of Colonel Campos to Miss Justa Urquiza takes place this evening.

A very unpleasant report to the effect that diseased cattle had been slaughtered in the Corrales and sold for food was in circulation yesterday. We trust the authorities will deal mercilessly with any offence of the kind.

We hear that the mad dogs of the city now select the witching hour of night for prowling about. Parties "en route" to "tertulias," whether of "confianza" or not, should look out for their dress trousers and the legs inside them.

The Tigre people are going to start an Hospital there, and have named a Commission to carry out the benevolent idea.

The National Government is now buying horses in Santa Fe. Strange to say that robberies of these animals have commenced on a prodigious scale since the army buyers appeared.

Another batch of tramway and railway projects was laid before the Provincial Minister of Government yesterday. Amongst the latter is a line from Moreno to Pilar and other northern partidos.

A seminary for the education of the daughters of officers killed in the late Franco-Prussian war has been founded by the Empress of Germany at Carlottenburg.

During the American war the circulation of the New York Herald doubled, owing to its putting on sixty-three war correspondents, the cost of which at the end of the war amounted to the round sum of £105,000. How can editors do more than live from hand to mouth, with such awful occasional expenses?

The Rio papers report a sudden outburst of popular feeling against foreigners, particularly the Portuguese, at Guayana, on the first three days of this month. The excesses of the mob were fearful. Three Portuguese and an Italian were murdered in the open street; amongst the former, Sr Oleivera, the first merchant in the town. The Italians received notice from the excited populace to quit the city in three days; houses were broken into, and for three days the lower classes were in complete possession of the town, the authorities, shameful to relate, remaining passive spectators of the outrages. All the foreign commercial houses closed their doors, the proprietors shutting themselves up with their families in terror of being massacred. The cause of the disturbance was some remarks offensive to Brazilian nationality said to have been made during an election procession by some Portuguese gentleman. The Rio papers very properly call for the instant dismissal of the authorities of the town, for their inexplicable indifference during the 'emeute.' Troops were being hurried to Guayana at the last moment.

Mr. Armstrong has handed over $10,000 m|c. from the funds of the late Comision Popular to the asylum for the orphans by the plague.

No news from the Interior or any of the rural districts yesterday. The tremendous rain on Thursday must have interfered with the communications.

Despatches from Chile announce that President Errazuriz and his Ministers have visited the Lazzaretto and small pox Hospitals. Mr. Intendente Mc Kenna caught the disease, but is better. The Chilian fleet showed splendid proficiency in the recent manœuvres off Valparaiso, entering port at their close in the teeth of a terrific gale of wind.

There is very little to say about bonds. The market appears harder notwithstanding that an English broker threw 10,000 on the Bolsa for the end of the month, but the king took them and asked for more. Still the market is not what it was last week; the news from London by the French mail has been a trifle more favorable as regards quotations, but that the stock has suffered there is felt here. Merchant's letters are of course of every hue. One of the best on the crisis says: The panic began on Monday 15th, caused by a Lisbon telegram appearing in the paper announcing that when Neva left Rio, it had been decided to refuse the Arg. envoy. A fall then commenced in Argentine, Bolivian and Paraguay. As the week proceeded, the German demand for gold was felt, and the Bank advanced its rate to 3½. Honduras dropped to 32. Consols fell ¼, and River Plate stocks 1 per cent lower, which in combination with the Lisbon telegram caused a decline in Argentine securities of 5 per cent.—sales were made below 90 On Saturday 20th a rally took place and now proceeds. Argentines are now (London 23rd) 2 better, Consols back to old price, Bolivian and Paraguay also better."

The sales in bonds to-day were as follows—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| For August 31st | 5000 | 74½ |
| Do | 100000 | 75½ |
| Do | 5000 | 75½ |
| Do | 10000 | 75½ |
| Sept 30 | 15000 | 75½ |

In the liquidation nothing done much in bonds; prices as above buyers.

A sale of 3000 American 'deseechos' at 54 rls.

Cedulas were flat enough to-day—

10,800 Series A, 95½.

In the Liquidation—

10,000 Series D, 94½.

The great business of the day was the sale by the London and River Plate Bank of 23 square leagues of land in the province of Entre Rios, on the banks of the Parana, for the sum of four thousand patacons per league—Mr. Lamas, purchaser.

The subscription list for the shares of the new Italian Bank closed to-day. Not only was every disposable share taken, but a leading German broker informs us that had there been three thousand more shares, they would have been all taken up.

A private subscription list for the shares of the new National Bank was on the Bolsa, and over one million was at once subscribed. This matter was much talked of on 'Change.

It appears now that several mail bags are missing, and some parties state that the post-office in Bordeaux has been half burnt down, and it is supposed some of the River Plate bags perished.

Exchange ruled to-day at 50d. and 19⅝; £40,000 stg. passed yesterday afternoon at 50 cash, to-morrow; £18,000 done to-day, cash, 50d; £8,000 bank paper, at 49¾, payable 90 days, at 6½ interest; £4,000, at 49¼ cash. The banks to-day lowered their rates. On Antwerp bills at 5.28, 5-31. On Montevideo at par and ¼ prem. Still news came this afternoon that exchange was up in Montevideo to 52½.

The Montevidean telegram gave the following—

Paper same. Extraordinary Debt 56½ end month. Home 52¼. Playa 70.

100 bales skins at 140.

Exchange 52, 52½

Pensacola, Brave.

Montreal, New Brunswick.

A Barcelona wine cargo at 50

Sheepskins are uppermost now everywhere. Brokers to-day spoke of nothing else save the clean sweep of the South Market which Mr. Bunge made. He called for skins and took everything off the market.

In shipping circles there was a stir this morning owing to Messrs. Green Le Rossignol having stolen a march on the Hamburg steamer Sylvia, by placing the City of Rio this morning on the berth to load for Hamburg. She at once took up all the bales. The Sylvia was looked for to-day, but did not enter. The merchants say the Hamburg trade is good, and the Hamburg line if they want to get it must put on good first class steamers.

The Newton sails to-day for Rio, Antwerp and Liverpool—700 tons cargo and £5000 in specie.

The Halley is expected at Montevideo to-morrow, and here following day. She loads for New York.

The City of Rio leaves on Sunday for Hamburg.

That fast steamer Olbers, Captain Hairby, is due about 29. She will be the mailboat for the 9th prox.

A side of pitch pine in Montevideo done at 50½. A cargo from Montreal in, and about to come up, but ordered to be sold in Montevideo.

The sale of the estancia of Don Julian Martinez, San Antonio de Areco is announced, 1 league land, 5000 sheep, cows, horses &c besides estancia house and 2 puestos, all for the round sum of $145,000 m|c. Don Domingo Martinez buyer.

The latest from London gives the hard dollar loan at 80.

Much merriment was caused on 'Change to-day by the account a certain party received of the crisis in London, and as there was in that city immense anxiety to find out River Plate people who would be certain to know everything that was going on telegrams were sent in every direction, the following were the whereabouts of the River Plate men—

The city of Rio from Liverpool entered port this morning, her dates from Europe have been anticipated but her news from Rio is fresher than the French packet. Exchange ruled 25⅞ to 26⅛; sovereigns a shade firmer and bought for September at 9,500. Flour the same and market steady.

The Gen. Nazar came in this morning from Rosario, the freshest news from that quarter is the rumpus in the Santa Fe chambers on the head of the Drabble and Callen Railway, it is said in Rosario that the members came to blows, the railway would be a splendid move for the province but there is a dead set against the measure and the belief is that it will go over for the year, business is tolerably brisk, but the rejection of the capital question has caused depression; money is worth double what it is in Buenos Ayres and even then hard to get; a new barraquero firm from Buenos Ayres is talked of, out in the camps numerous buyer; of hides and sheepskins farmers doing well.

Until to-day there was nothing much known of the full extent of the London panic in South American stocks. In our leading column will be found the full details of this very serious matter; it will be seen there that Mr. David Robertson, M. P., chairman of the Buenos Ayres Great Southern Railway, and the largest English holder of Argentine stocks, called a meeting of Argentine bond-holders with a view to wait in a body on Earl Granville, and demand the mediation of the British Government in the Argentine and Brazilian squabble; the majority of bond-holders voted against the measure as premature, and opined that it would be better to await further advices. The losses on the Stock Exchange have been simply enormous; speculators have made fortunes. Further particulars about this matter, will be found in another column.

The Public Credit Office has published another statement, under date of July 30th, of the state of the National Bond emission. The matter is of high interest to the commercial public—

| Issue. | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Series A, | $100 f | each | $269,700 |
| " B, | 600 | " | 619,200 |
| " C, | 1000 | " | 1,310,000 |
| " D, | 2000 | " | 2,150,200 |
| " E, | 5000 | " | 10,780,000 |
| Consolidated, C, $1000 f | | | 2,842,000 |
| Registered bonds | | | 1,260,500 |
| Wanklyn loan | | | 6,375,000 |
| | | | 25,696,600 |
| Less amortization since 1864 | | | 4,197,400 |
| Total debt existing | | | 21,399,200 |

The foregoing table is useful to bond speculators in as much as it shows how the Nat. Bonds stand. How these bonds are held is a matter of commercial notoriety—

| | |
|---|---|
| In London: Wanklyn debt | 6,375,000 |
| Provincial Bank | 3,000,000 |
| Buschental debt off market | 2,842,000 |
| Bienhechora holds | 1,700,000 |
| Pledged in Provincial Bank | 2,000,000 |
| Absentee foreign holders | 2,500,000 |
| Pledged in private banks | 1,000,000 |
| Held by local capitalists | 1,000,000 |
| Floating in market say | 982,200 |

The recent decision of the Federal Court in the case of Ocampo against the Rosario Custom-house is an important mercantile judgment. Goods held in the Rosario Custom House in the name of a bankrupt assignee, but belonging to Mr. Ocampo of Buenos Ayres, were seized and sold Mr. Ocampo claimed the goods, and the Supreme Court has ratified his claim.

The French packet brought out 266 passengers to the Plate.

Mr. O'Grady, who is so well known in shipping circles on the beach, has returned from South Africa. He has favored us with late exchanges which bossess much interest.

There was an immense stir on the Flores road this morning owing to the rather startling announcement that the Flores Municipality has intimated to Mr Banker Wanklyn, the necessity of his at once pulling up all his beautiful Paradise trees but recently planted along his side walk; it seems that the Municipality insists that all trees along the road must be planted outside of the vereda or side walk. The board will possibly next object to the nomenclature of the Quintas-Lambare is Guarani and not Argentino, but it stands.

Owing to the stocking weather yesterday afternoon, we had no steamer from the Mount this morning so best, less postage and sealing wax.

The Prov. chambers have voted nem con, 200,000 m|c for Chile.

On next Monday the Argentine Bank pays its half yearly dividend 7 per cent.

It was rumored on 'Change to-day that Dr. Bernard Irigoyen, who is so well and favorably known in commercial circles, has a gigantic National Bank scheme ready to lay before the Government. Whatever Dr. Irigoyen offers will be met with the unanimous vote of the Bolsa.

The Thomas railway bill has at last been passed by the Cordoba Legislature. The scheme is a good one.

Some passengers were stopped on the mole yesterday, their persons searched, and a large amount of jewelry for some shop in town seized.

Mr. E. Castro and Don Juan Antonio Fernandes astounded the building gremio yesterday by their calls for bids for the new prison—

2,000,000 bricks.
10,000 fan. Parana lime.
4,000 cubic yards sand.
5,000 fan. brick dust.

Bids to be sent to Mr. E. Bunges,' 88, Corrientes

The smuggling business is still the talk of the Custom House; to-day seven houses implicated, and the following vessels seized:—Joven, Benedito, Lucia, Amelia.

Yesterday three cargoes of cut paving stones arrived from Salto, B.O.

To-day the Italian Bank circular was sent round. The signatures of the following directors are given—Demarchi, Schiaffino, and Vialo. The manager's signature, S. Pollinini, is also given. This bank has made a capital start; to-day its discounts run up to 100,000 pats. This looks well.

The latest advices from Cordoba respecting the new loan are sufficiently amusing. It appears there is as much difficulty in naming the agent to negociate it as the rate at which it is to be done. As to launching this provincial loan in the London market, it is now out of the question, owing to the general depreciation which River Plate securities have suffered, and yet to do the loan in this market will necessitate so severe a shave that it is probable the Cordoba Government will find it its interest to let the matter stand for the present.

The meeting of the Rural Society, called for next Monday, will have one feature of interest for the mercantile community, inasmuch as the exportation of dirt will be the chief topic. Mr. Webster's patent, if successfully worked, will initiate a great reform by freeing the wool, which is our chief export, from the worthless carretil'a which for the last few years we have been shipping to the European markets in enormous quantity, and besides saving the country a very useless expenditure it will improve our export and enhance its market value. A scheme fraught with such importance to the industrial interests of the country merits not only the attention of producers but the most liberal support from the Government, and now that the wool season is approaching no better time could be selected for giving the process a fair trial and testing its merits, we look, therefore, for a crowded attendance at the Rural Society next Monday.

Sheepfarmers, estancieros, and others, should take notice that on next Tuesday the great auction of Negretti and Rambouil'et rams from the estancia of Don Eduardo Olivera comes off at Bullrich's.

On the 3d inst another auction of suburban property will be held by Bullrich, and it is only necessary to name the locality to secure a large attendance. The Green property, at the Lomas de Zamora, is again in the market; 57 magnificent lots, adjoining Paradise Grove, will be put up at auction. This little village of the plain is now studded with some of the sweetest country residences about the vicinity of Buenos Ayres, and although Flores has its own merits, there is not a greener spot in our suburban waste than the Lomas de Zamora.

A meeting of the Creditors of Don Luis Podesta is called for the 27th inst, at 2 o'clock.

On Friday the 30th inst there will be a great auction at the Boca by order of the courts, 4 pilot boats will be knocked down to the highest bidder and on next Sunday ten thousand fat sheep will be sold at the railway station at Mercedes.

Messrs. Kreglinger under date of 23rd July write from Antwerp—

"Tallow very quiet, and sales are confined to 903 pipes and 13 piponos beef at fl 25½, equal to a sale afloat at 44/8½d and 124/1 pipes and 100 pipones mutton at fl 25¼/4/1d.

"Wool.—The more favorable news from the London sales and particularly the rise established in the same for Cape wools has not failed to produce a revival in the demand in our markets. Buyers in the interior having succeeded to reduce considerably their stocks, have been induced to resume their purchases, whilst holders, owing to the high cost of the bulk of the imports, have not been very free sellers, requiring an advance and which for the last transactions has been allowed, the same having been effected at about the closing rates of our last quarterly sales, viz. at fr 2.40 to fr 2.45, equal to a sale in England at 10¾ to 10 15/32d for round lots of Montevideo of good medium quality, and fr 1.70/85 7 9/32d to 7 29/32d for Buenos Ayres of secondary to good secondary quality and fr 1.90 so fr 2.10—8¼d to 8 31/32d for good to superior lots. Sales 6606 bales. Stock 25053 bales River Plate.

The third series of our quarterly sales has been fixed to open on the 30th July; the quantities declared comprise about 23,000 bales.

Sheepskins—We have to report the sale of 137 bales at the quotations reported in our last market review.

In dry hides the demand has been active at very firm prices. Dry matadero cow which continue much inquired after and without hardly any supplies are commanding a new rise of 2 frs. A good inquiry for leather is reported from Germany at an advance of about 5 per cent. for cow, and about 3 per cent. for ox leather.

Horse hair has been rather neglected and sales are limited to 57 bales. Stock 306 packages. We quote—Good to fine mixed 1.90½ frs.

Messrs. Good, Rigg and Co., of London, say—Since the date of our last report a considerable business has been done in floating cargoes of River Plate hides, at 8d. per lb. for heavy ox, and 7¾d. and 8d. per lb. for higher weights. The demand continues good, and with light stocks of hides everywhere, we did not anticipate any reduction in values for some time to come. Cow hides are wanted, and for cargoes afloat 7¾d. per lb. could be obtained.

Sheep Skins—The market keeps quiet, and we have no transactions to notice. Our next sales are fixed for the 1st prox.

Nutria skins neglected, and prices must be considered nominal—12d to 13d. per lb. being their nearest value.

Boneash.—As is usual at this season of the year, the enquiry falls off, and the transactions have been small. Consumers generally are fairly stocked, and we cannot look for much improvement in the demand until the autumn. The quotations are as follow—

Ash, £6 5s to £6 7s 6d.
Bones £6 17s 6d per ton.

The tallow market has been quiet during the past fortnight, with scarcely any fluctuation in value. No sales of South American to report, and present quotations are, from fair average to fine beef 44/6 to 45s, and for good to fine mutton 42/6 to 43s per cwt.

SAVINGS BANK

BANK MAUA AND CO.

101--Calle Cangallo--103

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, will offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM

CONDITIONS.

First--The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wish, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

BETTS'S CAPSULE PATENTS—To prevent Infringement—Notice is hereby given, that BETTS'S NAME is on every Capsule and makes for the patent Lucemans in England and France, thus enabling vendor, purchaser, and consumer, not only to identify the genuineness of the Capsule, but likewise the contents of the vessel to which it is applied. The Lord Chancellor, in his judgment, on the 8th of February, 1864, said that the Capsules are not used merely for the purpose of ornament, but that they are serviceable in protecting the wine from injury and insuring its genuineness.

FAMILY HERALD.

FAMILY HERALD, WEEKLY 1d.

The 'Illustrated London News,' in reference to pure literature, speaks of 'The FAMILY HERALD, that joy to tens of thousands of innocent English households.'

FAMILY HERALD, MONTHLY 6d.

The 'Saturday Review' says: 'The FAMILY HERALD stands at the head, both in age and popularity, of all the penny serials..... The Editor is the confidant and confessor in every station of life. The Answers to Correspondents cannot be fictitious, a romance and a life history being embodied in almost each of them..... Its novels and tales are quite as well written as the best circulating library stories.'

FAMILY HERALD, ANNUALLY, 7s. 6d.

The 'Literary Gazette' says: 'It must be said of the FAMILY HERALD, that it is the purest reading of all purely amusing literature; it is indeed a family paper.'

FAMILY HERALD, WEEKLY 1d.

The 'British Quarterly Review' says: 'Under the head of "The Story Teller," we have novels and tales simpler and purer in structure than in the pages of the other penny serials..... There are charming verses let into its pages, like sunshine, to brighten them.....It is well considered with reference to its aims, and is various and amusing, with a fair amount of utility intermixed. Of all these publications we are inclined to consider the FAMILY HERALD the best.

FAMILY HERALD, MONTHLY, 6d.

Leigh Hunt, in his Autobiography, says—'I call out every week for my FAMILY HERALD, a penny publication qualified to inform the best of its contemporaries.'

FAMILY HERALD, ANNUALLY 7s. 6d.

The 'Bookseller' says: 'For amusing reading, such as may be admitted to one's household without fear of consequences, we can recommend the FAMILY HERALD. You get portions of a well-written novel, novelettes, useful information interspersed throughout, answers to correspondents, alone worth the money, and a variety of other matters, which will make readers merrier or wiser, or perhaps both.'

DYSENTERY, CHOLERA, FEVER, AGUE COUGHS, COLDS, &c.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Med. Staff)
CHLORODYNE
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the Inventor of CHLORODYNE that the story of the Defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne, that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—The Times, July 12, 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE
REMEDIA, USES AND ACTION.

THIS INVALUABLE REMEDY produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while Medical men extol its virtues most extensively using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—

Diseases in which it is found eminently useful—Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colics, Coughs, Asthma, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cough, Cramp, Hysteria, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet Dec. 31, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay:—"Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after 18 month's severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed."

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports [Dec. 1865] that nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne was administered the patient recovered.

Extract from Medical Times, Jan. 12, 1866.—"Chlorodyne is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practitioners. Of course it would not thus be singularly popular did it not 'supply a want and fill a place.'"

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strong are we convinced of the immense value of his remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

Beware of spurious and dangerous compounds sold as CHLORODYNE, from which frequent fatal results have followed.

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug. 1, 1869, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
